DAYS 5 – 7, Sunday – Tuesday Riga, Latvia

Riga, Latvia's capital, is lively with the picturesque charm of the Middle Ages and rich Art Nouveau architecture. Visit the magnificent St. Mary's Cathedral and delve into Latvia's past with a visit to the Occupation Museum. Spend a full day at Sigulda, where you will explore

Turaida Castle and Sigulda Castle, built by German crusaders in the 13th century. □ Hotel Bergs, Riga

DAY 8, Wednesday Kaunas, Lithuania

After a visit to Rundale's famous 18th-century palace, cross the border to view the Hill of Crosses, a truly extraordinary forest of over 100,000 crosses in all shapes, sizes and materials. In Kaunas, you'll visit the castle, cathedral, town hall and the Museum of Pharmacy. Discover the Devil's Museum, with over 2,000 devils' masks and sculptures from all over the world.

□ Hotel Daugirdas, Kaunas

DAYS 9 & 10, Thursday & Friday

Vilnius

Vilnius contains the finest examples of Baroque architecture north of Rome. Explore the old part of the city, filled with Gothic and Renaissance structures. The University Campus, the Vilnius Cathedral and the KGB Museum complete our experience of this "royal town" founded in 1323.

□ Stikliai Hotel, Vilnius

DAYS 11 – 13, Saturday – Monday

Gdansk, Poland

Fly to Gdansk, a beautiful city situated in the northern part of Poland. Throughout its history, Gdansk has been a major trading center on the Baltic Sea. Visit two nearby ports—Sopot and Gdynia. On the way, stop at Oliwa, a partially preserved monastery complex where you will see the famous Oliwa Organ and attend a concert at the Oliwa Cathedral. Sopot, a seaside resort in the best traditions of old world grandeur, is often described as the "summer capital of Poland."
